

Professor Eid Abd El-Wahed Ali Darwish, Ph.D.

- Professor of curricula and methods of teaching English, Faculty of Education, Minia University.
- PhD of Philosophy in Education, curricula and methods of teaching English, School of Education, University of Pittsburgh, USA in teacher preparation and training (2001).
- A counselor of the decentralization component of the Education Reform Program (ERP) in the period between November 2006 and January 2008 in the governorates of Alexandria, Cairo, Fayoum, Beni-sweif, Mina, Qina, and Aswan.
- A consultant of the New School Project sponsored by CARE\EDC in Washington D.C. in the period between November 2003 and January 2005 of 70 schools in the governorates of, Mina, Beni-sweif, and Fayoum.
- An expert at international care corporation.
- Director of the professional academy of teachers in Egypt.
- Vice dean of the Faculty of Education, Minia University for undergraduate affairs (2013-2015).
- A member of the high committee of the center of quality assurance and accreditation, Minia University.
- A member of the high committee of the center of strategic planning, Minia University.
- A reviewer of the academic work presented to the committees for promotion to the degrees of associate professor and professor for the Supreme Council of Universities in Egypt, Jordan, Saudi Arabia, Kuwait, and Bahrain.
- A candidate for the position of "Senior Manager of Education," the Arab Organization for Education, Science and Culture in Tunisia (2013).
- Has numerous books and more than 40 published researches (in Arabic and English languages) in Egyptian, Arab and international referred journals as well as programs and projects in human development and education and learning.
- Author of a lot of books and training packages and manuals in the fields of human development and teacher professional development.
- A supervisor and examiner of many MA and PhD theses in the field of curricula and methods of teaching English in most of the universities in Egypt, Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, Oman, Jordan ...etc.

- A jury member for examining the academic work for promotion applicants to the degree of associate professor and professor in sister Arab countries.
- Participated in many Egyptian, Arab and international conferences such as in the USA and England.
- Participated in many interviews to select educational leaders and minister assistants.
- Participated in many ministry committees for developing pre-university education and putting admission criteria for higher education.
- Has research activities in UNESCO in 2018 in the area of the professional development of the teacher as an educational expert.
- Vice Dean for Undergraduate Affairs at Faculty of Education, Minia University for two consecutive periods.
- Dean of the Faculty of Education for Early Childhood, Minia University (2018).
- Dean of the Faculty of Education, Minia University (Presidential Decree in 2019).
- The regional electronic coordinator of UNESCO in Beirut.
- Head of the third conference of the Faculty of Education for Early Childhood, Minia University (held on 27th March 2019) entitled 'Future horizons of the contributions of the faculties of Education for Early Childhood in community service and developing the environment.'
- Head of the eleventh conference (2nd international) of the Faculty of Education, Minia University (on 24th April 2019) entitled 'Developing education and building the contemporary human.'
- Participated in the first international forum of higher education and scientific research (GFHS, 2019) held between 4 and 6 April at Massa Hotel in the managerial New Capital under the auspices and attendance of His Excellency the President EL Sisi.